Dear Ms. Spires:

As a state legislator in suburban Philadelphia, I am writing to request that your management team return to the bargaining table to continue to negotiate a new contract with your employees. I understand that the employees have been working under a contract extension since February of 2008 and have, at no time, discussed a strike or work stoppage. I further understand that you have issued a last, best and final offer, which the union has overwhelmingly rejected.

As someone who represents both employees and customers of Acme, and as an Acme shopper myself, I would urge that you continue to seek a resolution with your employees.

Your consideration of this recommendation is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
